

Shorty and Betty

David Brinkman
July 1, 2010

D B m D B m D B m

Short-y and Bet-ty once drift-ed a - part like leaves in the Wy - o - ming

G A D F# G G m D

7

wind _____ Short-ty and Bet-ty now have a new start. Sweet-hearts to -

A D G D

14

geth - er a - gain _____ Here in Elk Mount-ain we toast them to - day

A D G D

21

Un - der the Wy - o - ming sun _____ Here in Elk Mount-ain they just found a

E A A7 D B m

28

way to share life to - geth - er as one. _____ Short - y and Bet - ty once

D B m D B m G A D

35

drift - ed a - part like leaves in the Wy - o - ming wind _____ Short-ty and

F# G G m D A D

42

Bet - ty now have a new start. Sweet-hearts to - geth - er a - gain _____

To Shorty and Betty Richardson, special friends in high school who are together again after 50 years. Congratulations on your wedding, and best wishes from all your musical friends in Laramie. It was a pleasure for Bill McKay, Warrie Means, Brian Peel, Jeff Selden, Nicole Lamartine, and Dave Brinkman to play at your reception in the Elk Mountain Park on July 3, 2010.